A close-up, low-angle shot of a modern lounge chair. The chair features a thick, curved wooden frame with a prominent grain pattern. The upholstery is made of smooth, black leather, which is visible on the seat and backrest. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the wood and leather against a dark background.

kruze lounge

designed by David Fox

Classic meets contemporary was the design philosophy behind Kruze Lounge. Building on the styling of the Kruze collection, the lounge chair ensure maximum comfort through its sculpted and sumptuous profile. Kruze Lounge is the ultimate statement piece for any front of house or corporate executive area.

Kruze Lounge offers the choice of a high or low back which can be fully upholstered or specified with a show-wood outer back in Black American Walnut. The chair is available with a matching footstool and can also be complimented by a selection of chairs, bar stools and tables from the Kruze collection.
